OUTCOMES

What you will achieve

By the end of the Cisco Certified Design course path, you will be able to:

1

Apply design methodology

Turn business and technical requirements into documented hierarchical and modular network designs.

2

Design enterprise networks

Design routing, campus, SD-Access, WAN, SD-WAN, QoS and multicast for resilient enterprises.

3

Lead expert design decisions

Justify trade-offs for data center, cloud, security and migration designs at expert level.

WHAT THE FOUNDATION LEVEL ADDS

Design methodology, hierarchy and addressing

Hands-on: Design a small campus network. Gather requirements for a three-building campus and produce a hierarchical design with an IPv4 and IPv6 addressing plan and diagrams.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Beginners and working professionals who are new to Cisco Certified Design and want a solid, hands-on start.
- Engineers, analysts, testers and students preparing to use Cisco Certified Design on real work.
- Leads and managers who want first-hand familiarity with Cisco Certified Design.

BEFORE YOU START

- No prior Cisco Certified Design experience is needed.
- Basic computer skills and a laptop with a stable internet connection for the live sessions and labs.
- This curriculum includes every earlier level, so it is complete on its own.

AGENDA · FOUNDATION

Cisco Certified Design Foundation Training agenda

10 topics. Each level builds on the one before it, so this curriculum lists every earlier level in full. Days are for corporate (day-wise) delivery; live online batches cover the same agenda in max 8-10 hours.

DAY 1 — Foundation: Design methodology, hierarchy and addressing

New at this level

1. Design methodology: plan, build and manage lifecycle, top-down design, business and technical requirements
2. Hierarchical network model: access, distribution and core layers, collapsed core designs
3. Modular enterprise architecture: campus, data center, WAN edge, internet edge and branch modules
4. Design principles: modularity, resiliency, scalability, simplicity and security by design
5. IPv4 addressing design: VLSM, private addressing and summarization-friendly allocation
6. IPv6 for designers: address types, prefix planning, SLAAC versus DHCPv6
7. Layer 2 fundamentals: VLANs, trunking and spanning tree variants and their design impact
8. Routing protocol overview: where OSPF, EIGRP, IS-IS and BGP each fit
9. Network audit: assessing an existing network and documenting constraints
10. Design documentation: diagrams, requirements traceability and design rationale

PRACTICE

Hands-on labs

You build these yourself during the course, guided by the trainer.

FOUNDATION

Design a small campus network

Gather requirements for a three-building campus and produce a hierarchical design with an IPv4 and IPv6 addressing plan and diagrams.
