OUTCOMES

What you will achieve

By the end of the Honeycomb course path, you will be able to:

1

Instrument with OpenTelemetry

Send rich traces, logs and metrics to Honeycomb using OpenTelemetry SDKs and the Collector.

2

Debug production quickly

Use queries, heatmaps, BubbleUp and traces to find the cause of real production issues.

3

Run observability at scale

Apply SLOs, sampling, governance and cost controls to observability across many services.

WHAT THE FOUNDATION LEVEL ADDS

Observability concepts, events, traces and first data

Hands-on: Instrument a service and explore traces. Add OpenTelemetry auto-instrumentation to a small web service, send traces to Honeycomb and find the slowest requests with the query builder.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Beginners and working professionals who are new to Honeycomb and want a solid, hands-on start.
- Engineers, analysts, testers and students preparing to use Honeycomb on real work.
- Leads and managers who want first-hand familiarity with Honeycomb.

BEFORE YOU START

- No prior Honeycomb experience is needed.
- Basic computer skills and a laptop with a stable internet connection for the live sessions and labs.
- This curriculum includes every earlier level, so it is complete on its own.

AGENDA · FOUNDATION

Honeycomb Foundation Training agenda

11 topics. Each level builds on the one before it, so this curriculum lists every earlier level in full. Days are for corporate (day-wise) delivery; live online batches cover the same agenda in max 8-10 hours.

DAY 1 — Foundation: Observability concepts, events, traces and first data

New at this level

1. Observability concepts: monitoring versus observability and asking new questions of production
2. Wide events and high cardinality: why rich, structured events beat pre-aggregated metrics
3. Distributed tracing basics: traces, spans, parent and child relationships and attributes
4. Honeycomb overview: teams, environments, datasets and how data is stored and queried
5. Getting started: creating an account, environments and ingest API keys
6. OpenTelemetry fundamentals: SDKs, API, exporters, OTLP and semantic conventions
7. First instrumentation: automatic instrumentation for a Node.js, Python, Java or Go service
8. Sending data over OTLP: endpoints, headers and verifying events arrive
9. Query builder basics: VISUALIZE, WHERE, GROUP BY and time ranges
10. Trace view: waterfall, span details and finding slow spans
11. Service map: viewing dependencies between instrumented services

PRACTICE

Hands-on labs

You build these yourself during the course, guided by the trainer.

FOUNDATION

Instrument a service and explore traces

Add OpenTelemetry auto-instrumentation to a small web service, send traces to Honeycomb and find the slowest requests with the query builder.
