OUTCOMES

What you will achieve

By the end of the Performance Monitoring course path, you will be able to:

1

Measure performance correctly

Use the right metrics, methods and tools to measure system and application performance.

2

Find and fix bottlenecks

Diagnose slow systems with APM, profiling, tracing and load testing.

3

Engineer for scale

Plan capacity and run a performance practice that balances speed, reliability and cost.

WHAT THE FOUNDATION LEVEL ADDS

Performance concepts, key metrics and core tools

Hands-on: Measure a server and its app. Collect CPU, memory, disk and network metrics from a Linux server with node_exporter and Grafana and correlate them with app response times.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Beginners and working professionals who are new to Performance Monitoring and want a solid, hands-on start.
- Engineers, analysts, testers and students preparing to use Performance Monitoring on real work.
- Leads and managers who want first-hand familiarity with Performance Monitoring.

BEFORE YOU START

- No prior Performance Monitoring experience is needed.
- Basic computer skills and a laptop with a stable internet connection for the live sessions and labs.
- This curriculum includes every earlier level, so it is complete on its own.

AGENDA · FOUNDATION

Performance Monitoring Foundation Training agenda

11 topics. Each level builds on the one before it, so this curriculum lists every earlier level in full. Days are for corporate (day-wise) delivery; live online batches cover the same agenda in max 8-10 hours.

DAY 1 — Foundation: Performance concepts, key metrics and core tools

New at this level

1. Performance monitoring defined: monitoring, observability, APM and capacity management compared
2. Key metrics: latency, throughput, error rate, saturation and utilisation
3. Methods: the USE method for resources and the RED method for services
4. Percentiles: averages versus p50, p95 and p99 and why tail latency matters
5. Linux tools: top, htop, vmstat, iostat, free and sar for CPU, memory and disk
6. Windows tools: Task Manager, Resource Monitor and Performance Monitor counters
7. Network basics: bandwidth, latency, packet loss and measuring with ping, mtr and iperf3
8. Application timing: response time breakdown across front end, back end and database
9. Monitoring stack overview: Prometheus and Grafana, and APM suites such as Datadog, Dynatrace and New Relic
10. First dashboard: node_exporter metrics in Grafana for one server
11. Baselines: establishing normal behaviour before setting alerts

PRACTICE

Hands-on labs

You build these yourself during the course, guided by the trainer.

FOUNDATION

Measure a server and its app

Collect CPU, memory, disk and network metrics from a Linux server with node_exporter and Grafana and correlate them with app response times.
