OUTCOMES

What you will achieve

By the end of the Secops course path, you will be able to:

1

Detect and triage threats

Use SIEM, EDR and network telemetry to detect, triage and escalate security alerts.

2

Respond to incidents effectively

Run the incident response lifecycle with playbooks, forensics basics and SOAR automation.

3

Mature security operations

Improve SOC coverage with detection engineering, threat hunting, purple teaming and metrics.

WHAT THE FOUNDATION LEVEL ADDS

SOC concepts, threats, telemetry and frameworks

Hands-on: Triage your first SOC alerts. Collect Windows and Linux logs into a SIEM in a lab, generate suspicious activity, then triage the resulting alerts and document each case.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Beginners and working professionals who are new to Secops and want a solid, hands-on start.
- Engineers, analysts, testers and students preparing to use Secops on real work.
- Leads and managers who want first-hand familiarity with Secops.

BEFORE YOU START

- No prior Secops experience is needed.
- Basic computer skills and a laptop with a stable internet connection for the live sessions and labs.
- This curriculum includes every earlier level, so it is complete on its own.

4. Attack frameworks: Lockheed Martin Cyber Kill Chain and MITRE ATT&CK tactics and techniques
5. Telemetry sources: Windows event logs, Sysmon, Linux auditd and syslog, firewall, proxy, DNS and cloud logs
6. Key Windows events: logons, process creation, service installs and account changes
7. Network basics for analysts: TCP/IP, common ports and protocols, packet capture with Wireshark
8. Security tooling map: SIEM, EDR, NDR, IDS/IPS, vulnerability scanners and SOAR
9. SIEM basics: log collection, parsing, correlation rules and alert triage
10. Alert triage: true and false positives, severity, context gathering and escalation
11. Documentation: tickets, case notes and evidence handling for investigations
